Estate: Paul Fürst was Gault-Millau winemaker of the Year in 2003. In addition to producing some of the finest white wines on the planet from Riesling, Pinot Blanc, Müller Thurgau and few others, Fürst belongs to the red wine elite in Germany for producing some of the most refined and finesseful Pinot Noirs in all of Germany. The vineyards are located in the villages of Bürgstadt with the Centgrafenberg and in Klingenberg with its Schlossberg.

Tasting Note: In the glass, this Pinot Noir is a beautiful ruby color. The nose is slightly smoky and spicy with very clean cherry and strawberry. Fresh on the palate with cranberry and dark cherry, medium fine tannin and volume; a very food flexible Pinot Noir.

Food Affinity: Outstanding with grilled seafood, poultry as well as fine cuts of beef and game
